□ 1242

Mr. MORAN of Kansas changed his vote from "aye" to "no."

So (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the resolution, as amended, was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, earlier today I attended a ceremony in Pennsylvania for the National Governor's Association. Maryland Governor Parris Glendening today became the Chairman of the National Governor's Association and because of my attendance, I was unable to vote on H. Con. Res. 253, H.R. 4442, and H. Res. 415. Had I been present, I would have voted "yes" on rollcall 379, 380, and 381.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. SKEEN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on H.R. 4461, and that I may include tabular and extraneous material.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SIMPSON). Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New Mexico?

There was no objection.

AGRICULTURE, RURAL DEVELOPMENT, FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION, AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2001

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 538 and rule

XVIII, the Chair declares the House in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the bill, H.R. 4461.

□ 1245

IN THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Accordingly, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the bill (H.R. 4461) making appropriations for Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies programs for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2001, and for other purposes, with Mr. NUSSLE in the chair.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The CHAIRMAN. When the Committee of the Whole rose on Monday, July 10, 2000, pending was amendment No. 39 by the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. DEFAZIO).

Pursuant to the order of the House of that day, no further amendments to the bill shall be in order except pro forma amendments offered by the chairman and ranking member of the Committee on Appropriations or their designees for the purpose of debate and amendments printed in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD numbered 9, 29, 32, 37, 48, 61, and 68, which may be offered only by the Member designated in the order of the House or a designee, or the Member who caused it to be printed or a designee, shall be considered read, shall be debatable for 10 minutes, equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, shall not be subject to amendment, and shall not be subject to a demand for a division of the question.

Eight and one-half minutes of debate remain on amendment No. 39 by the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. DEFAZIO). The gentleman from Oregon (Mr. DEFAZIO) has 2½ minutes remaining, and the gentleman from New Mexico (Mr. SKEEN) has 6 minutes remaining.

Mr. SKEEN. Mr. Chairman, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Washington (Mr. DICKS).

Mr. DICKS. Mr. Chairman, I would like to engage in a colloquy with the primary author of the amendment, the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. DEFAZIO).

I want to be clear, in light of my responsibilities on the Subcommittee on Interior Appropriations, that the recovery programs for threatened and endangered species conducted by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service will not be adversely affected.

It is my understanding that the gentleman does not intend to impede recovery programs directed by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and sometimes performed in part by the Wildlife Services.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. DICKS. I yield to the gentleman from Oregon.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Chairman, it is not my intent to impede recovery programs for threatened or endangered species administered by the Fish and Wildlife Service.

Mr. DICKS. Mr. Chairman, I thank the gentleman. I want to emphasize that when these rare killings of threatened or endangered species do occur, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and the Wildlife Services should only use the most humane method of killing, such as shooting or foot snares with tranquilizer tabs.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Chairman, if the gentleman will again yield, I agree that the Fish and Wildlife Service and Wildlife Services should use the most humane methods in the conduct of their responsibilities under the Endangered Species Act.

Mr. DICKS. Mr. Chairman, I appreciate the gentleman from New Mexico yielding.

Mr. SKEEN. Mr. Chairman, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Idaho (Mr. SIMPSON).

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Chairman, I thank the gentleman from New Mexico for yielding me this time.

Mr. Chairman, this may be the most ill-conceived amendment that we have considered during debate on this bill.

Some have called this nothing more than corporate welfare. Well, I will tell my colleagues that in Idaho, Wyoming and Montana, what the Federal Government has done, at a cost of $1 million apiece, is they have reintroduced wolves into the State of Idaho as "non-essential experimental populations." They are costing ranchers and farmers thousands and thousands of dollars. Not only are they costing ranchers and farmers money, they are decimating our elk and deer herds.

Ranchers would like to take care of this problem themselves. Unfortunately, there are substantial penalties and fines involved. It has been said that the Fish and Wildlife Service does not use other nonlethal means of trying to maintain control of these predators. The fact is that we capture them, we trap them, we have taken them to other parts of the State, as far away as 300 and 400 miles; and we find that within 2, 3, 4 days, a week, they are back in their original location, often times.

In fact, last week I was in Idaho in the Saw Tooth Mountains, and I bought this book; and I would like to take just a moment to reintroduce my colleagues or introduce my colleagues to the Saw Tooth pack of wolves in the State of Idaho. Now, I have to admit, these are beautiful animals. In fact, if we look at this page here, this is their class picture in the nice, soft focus. This is Komoto, the alpha leader. He is regal, confident and benevolent. This here is Moto. He is of middle rank. He is bright, curious and energetic. He also initiates play. Unfortunately, let
